THE COSTS OF DISCIPLESHIP

Today's responsorial psalm, Psalm 40, is more familiar to us with the refrain "Here am I, Lord." This "Here am I" is Jeremiah's great prophetic response to God's call. But today's story of Jeremiah and the refrain "Lord, come to my aid!" remind us that there are always two sides to following the call of God. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews knew this, too. He reminded his readers that even weighted down with burdens and sins, we can still persevere by keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, who himself knew the shame and pain of the cross, but saw beyond it to the joy of sitting at the right of the throne of God. Jesus himself gave the disciples a "sneak preview" of a baptism that would not be as wondrous as the one in the Jordan that inaugurated his ministry, but would be one of fire and anguish. Today's words from scripture may not be terribly soothing, but in their honesty and strength we can acknowledge the difficulties of daily discipleship, and take comfort in the assurance of our own salvation in Christ.

St. Anne Parish Mission Prayer

Almighty Father, we thank you for calling us to live together as the family of St. Anne Catholic Church. Generations ago you lit the fire of faith through a mission to the children of immigrants in a small stone church. Lord Jesus, we ask you to help us to follow you and humbly serve you by welcoming and serving those most in need of your love. Fill us with your Holy Spirit and light our path. Keep us attentive to your word in the Scriptures and help us to recognize Christ in the breaking of the bread. May the lives we lead be our offering of love to you. We make our prayer in unity with all the Saints, especially through the intercession of St. Anne the grandmother of Jesus. Amen.

All are invited to come and learn more about the ancient history of the Mass, the "source and summit of our Catholic Faith". We will explore Sacred Scripture in the Old and the New Testament to better appreciate God's plan for our salvation history. This class will be held on Sunday evenings at Immaculate Conception Parish in Immaculata Hall 6:30 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. beginning on Sept. 11.

Bring your bible and a copy of the book by Thomas Nash:

Coffee break from Fr. Toshio Francesco, CM

I would like to take this opportunity to thank so many people in the past three weeks since I arrived at St. Anne who have generously shared your time, talents, and treasures. Especially, I would like to thank for two events: (1) the air condition replacement - despite those dog summer days, voluntarily a few of our parishioners swiftly put the new air conditioning immediately after the theft! (2) St. Anne potluck - I am so grateful for all the preparation and enthusiastic welcome, especially the delicious food!! I feel blessed and thank God for the call to serve you and grow together in love of Christ. I very much look forward to having many celebrations to praise God's name while building one, strong community of faith and love in Jesus Christ. Thank you!

Collections for August 6 & 7 2016
Offerings will be reported in next weeks bulletin.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal August 20 & 21
The Catholic Home Missions Appeal will take place next week. One way that this appeal works to support home mission dioceses in the United States is by supporting seminarian formation in poor dioceses. The blessing of seminarians places a financial burden on these dioceses, because educating each seminarian costs $35-40K per year. Your support is needed for these young men so that they might go back and serve their parishes. Please strengthen the Church at home by making a generous gift to next week's appeal.
